

Welcome Week Fall 2009

August 15: Move In Day

Single students will be allowed to move in to the dorms or to their apartments on Saturday, August 15 from 8:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. When you arrive on campus, please check in at the Student Development office. (The Student Development office is located in the Classroom building at the south end of campus – same building as the LifeWay Store.). You'll sign your lease, meet your R.A., and will then be free to unload belongings into your dorm room or apartment. Current students will be on hand to assist new students in the moving process.

August 16: The Bunker

Current students will be on hand to help new students find local churches that morning and/or that evening. At 9pm, the Bunker (in the Dorm) will be open for a casual fellowship time. SBA will be providing free ice cream for everyone.

August 17: Dorm Activity and Girls Activity

Students will be free to settle in and take care of personal business during the day. Current students will be on hand to help, answer questions, and perhaps even give organized tours of the area. (Example: Group trip to Wal-Mart or the Post office). You will receive more information about this when you arrive on campus. On this night, there will be a dorm event for the guys and a ladies event for the girls.

August 18: Worlds of Fun (optional)

All students interested in buying tickets to Worlds of Fun will be purchasing tickets from Student Development and will be spending the day at the park. Please RSVP by Aug 16 to Amy Gilmore (agilmore@mbts.edu) to purchase your ticket.

August 19: Campus Wide BBQ, Slip n Slide, and Movie on the lawn

SBA will be grilling burgers and hotdogs for students and their families. We hope to have the "Slip n Slide" open during the afternoon, and after dinner we will be showing a movie on the lawn.

August 20: College NSO

All Undergraduate students will be required to attend NSO. It begins at 8am and will take place in the Chapel. Graduate students have no responsibilities on this day.

August 21: Graduate NSO

All Masters students will be required to attend NSO. It begins at 8am and will take place in the Chapel. Undergraduate students have no responsibilities on this day.

August 21: President's Ice Cream Social

All new students will be invited to attend the President's ice cream social in the afternoon/evening. It will take place at the Vivian Farm Home. You will receive specific information regarding this event and how to RSVP at a later date.

Please direct any questions you might have regarding Welcome Week to Amy Gilmore in the Student Development office. (816.414.3735 or agilmore@mbts.edu)
