

MWI Course Descriptions

Wives in Ministry

Students will gain instruction, guidance, counsel, and encouragement from six women serving with their husbands in different and various ministry vocations in local churches.

Foundations

Taught by a team of faculty, staff, and their wives, this required course will help develop one's understanding of marriage, ministry, and practical Christian life issues.

Baptist Heritage and Beliefs

This course is an overview of Baptist history and a study of Southern Baptist doctrinal beliefs as expressed in The Baptist Faith and Message - SBC.

Biblical Parenting

This elective offers direction and encouragement from God's Word and practical advice for teaching and rearing children in the admonition of the Lord.

Biblical Counseling

This course serves as an introduction to the basics of counseling, exploring the biblical foundation, various ministry aspects, challenges, and techniques of counseling. Students will have the opportunity to practice counseling through role play.

Carolyn Hester Women's Conference

This course provides women with an opportunity to participate in the leadership team organizing the yearly spring Carolyn Hester Conference for women.

Discipleship I

This class will aid the student in personal discipleship. The student will be encouraged to pursue a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through practice and discipline.

Discipleship II

This class will continue to aid the student in personal discipleship. The student will be encouraged to pursue a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through practice and discipline.

Hospitality

This elective will examine the biblical basis of hospitality and practical ways to apply the principles in ministry.

Ministry Wife 101

This course provides an in-depth study of the text as well as discussion and analysis of various issues and challenges that can arise while serving as a ministry wife.

Missions & Evangelism

This course is a study of the biblical and theological basis for evangelism and missions, taking an in-depth look at the missionary work of the SBC, as well as practical concepts of evangelism focusing on specific needs and opportunities for women.

New Testament

This course is an expository survey of the New Testament with an emphasis on its background, foundation, and content. The date, author, theme, purpose, and major characteristics of each book will be explored.

Old Testament

This course is an overview of the Old Testament introducing the student to the background, context, and content of the Old Testament.

Prayer

This elective will explore the various components of prayer by studying the character of God and praying people in Scripture, as well as develop strategies to increase the student's personal prayer life.

SBC

This course explores the development of the Southern Baptist Convention, key people, events, and controversies in its history, as well as its present programs and roles in the local, national, and world stages.

Worldview & Ethics

This elective will examine some current cultural issues from a biblical perspective, as well as develop the student's response to them.