

RAWLINGS TO SPEAK AT FALL CONVOCATION

Tuesday, Aug. 25

Though a native of Arkansas, Harold Rawlings spent most of his boyhood years in Tyler, Texas. He holds degrees from Baptist Bible College, Bob Jones University, California Graduate School of Theology, and Louisiana Baptist University. Rawlings' first pastorate was in St. Louis, where he served for six years. In 1963, he became the associate pastor of Landmark Baptist Temple in Cincinnati. In 1984, he became co-pastor along with his father, Dr. John Rawlings, and then served as senior pastor from 1994 to 2001. Now associated with The Rawlings Foundation, Rawlings preaches and lectures in churches, institutions, conferences, and seminars worldwide. He and his wife, Sylvia, have five children, all of whom are involved either in full-time ministry or as active volunteers in their local churches.

ROBERTS IN CHAPEL PULPIT

Wednesday, Aug. 26

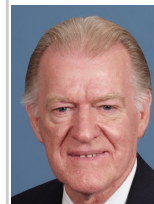

R. Philip Roberts is the fourth president of Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, a position he has held since 2001. He previously served as vice president with the North American Mission Board. In addition to being involved in theological education and international ministry, Roberts has co-authored two books, Mormonism Unmasked and The Counterfeit Gospel of Mormonism, contributed to a number of Christian and evangelical journals and publications, and assisted in the production of two videos, The Cross and the Crescent (2001) and The Mormon Puzzle (1997). Roberts received his Ph.D. degree from Free University of Amsterdam, did post-graduate research at Oxford University, and earned an M.Div. degree at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He and his wife, Anna, have two grown children.

$50/$50 DEAL >> An extremely effective way of recruiting students is word of mouth advertising. To encourage current Midwestern students to invite prospective students to the upcoming Preview Day on Friday, Sept. 4, a financial incentive will be provided. For each student that attends Preview Day and indicates that they were invited by you, you will receive $50 off your tuition bill for the following semester. If that student then decides to attend Midwestern, you will receive an additional $50 off your tuition bill for the following semester. For more information on the $50/$50 deal, contact the Student Development office at 816-414-3733.

FAITHRIDER MOTORCYCLE MINISTRY >> The first ride of the Midwestern FAITHRider Motorcycle Ministry will be Tuesday, Aug. 25, to Dynamic Life Baptist Church for prayer and Oklahoma Joe's for barbecue. Kickstands up at 5:30 p.m. from the seminary "circle drive" by the Koehn & Myers Center. Membership is free. For more information, contact Dr. Rodney Harrison.

FOOD PANTRY >> The next Midwestern Food Pantry will be held on Thursday, Aug. 27. The pantry is located in the Koehn & Myers Center (lower level, back side). It is available to all admitted MBTS students and their families, and is generally open on the fourth Thursday of each month from 4:00 to 7:00 p.m. Students may only pick up food for themselves and immediate family members (not for roommates/neighbors).

LATTE >> The first Latte coffee and music fellowship of the fall semester will be held on Friday, Aug. 28, beginning at 8:30 p.m. in the Koehn & Myers Center. For more information, contact Amy Gilmore at agilmore@mbts.edu.

FALL PICNIC >> The annual Midwestern Fall Picnic will be held on Thursday, Sept. 3, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the gazebo area (in case of rain, the picnic will be moved to the Koehn & Myers Center). If you are married, please bring 2 side dishes or one side and a dessert. If you are single, please bring either a side dish or a dessert. There will also be an archery competition to determine who will receive on-campus deer tags. Tags will be awarded to the top three participants. Please bring your own bow and arrows. If interested, contact Larry Headley at Campus Operations (816) 414-3732 prior to the picnic.

MISSIONS FELLOWSHIP >> The Midwestern Missions Fellowship will have its first meeting of the fall semester on Friday, Sept. 11, at 5:30 p.m. in the Koehn & Myers Center Downing Room. The Missions Fellowship is for all students (college and seminary) and faculty who are interested in international and North American missions. This is not just for students who plan on going to the mission field, but for all of those who are supportive of missions. A free meal is provided for those who RSVP to Julie Harrison at jharrison@mbts.edu by Thursday, Sept. 10, at 1:00 p.m. The Sept. 11 speaker will be an international missionary. The meeting will conclude by 7:00 p.m.

ACCORDANCE BIBLE SOFTWARE SEMINAR >> Anyone interested in learning more about Accordance Bible software is encouraged to attend a seminar on Saturday, Sept. 12, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. in the Koehn & Myers Center Downing Room. The morning session will focus on interface concepts and basic searching. The afternoon session will deal with advanced searched, Greek and Hebrew tools, and Graphic resources. Please register at least five days in advance by sending an e-mail to seminars@accordancebible.com. You can also use this address for any questions about the seminars or call 877-339-5855 or 407-339-5855. For more information on Accordance, including demos, visit <http://www.accordancebible.com>.
