The seal of West Lafayette, Indiana, is circular with a scalloped border. It features a central illustration of a building with three spires. The seal is divided into four quadrants: the top-left shows a hand holding a scroll, the top-right shows a map of Indiana with a star, and the bottom-left shows a plow. The text 'WEST LAFAYETTE' is written along the top inner edge and 'INDIANA' along the bottom inner edge.
